FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bloom Trail High School Celebrates Literacy with Bloom Trail's Blazer Book Box

Chicago Heights, IL - 10/4/22 - Little Free Libraries are a global phenomenon. The small, front-yard book exchanges number more than 150,000 around the world in over 100 countries — from Iceland to Tasmania to Pakistan. Now, a Blazer Book Box, a new Little Free Library, will be located at Bloom Trail High School, 22331 Cottage Grove Ave in Chicago Heights and join the movement to share books, bring people together, and create communities of readers.

Principal Glynis Keene will host a grand-opening party for the Little Free Library on Thursday, October 13, 2022 at 9:30 a.m. The celebration will take place during Teen Read Week.

“Our Little Free Library doesn’t just belong to us, it belongs to the whole District 206 community,” says Samantha Reda, Division Coordinator for English, Reading, and Social Studies. “It’s our hope that this Little Free Library will bring a little more joy, a little more connection and a whole lot more books to our community.”

The Little Free Library nonprofit organization has been honored by the Library of Congress, the National Book Foundation, and the American Library Association. Reader’s Digest named them one of the “50 Surprising Things We Love about America.” To learn more, please visit littlefreelibrary.org.
